Stand Tall, Stand Proud, Stand United.

Sisters and Brothers,

Your are being called upon during this national crisis to go above and beyond what anyone could have expected. Know that I and my team are working tirelessly to help protect you and your rights during this unprecedented emergency. Each of you has stepped forward and shown the value of your worth and what can be accomplished when we stand united.

The next few months will undoubtedly test the very fabric of each of us and I know you will rise to the challenge. Working in compliance with Federal and State mandates, I want to assure you that IBEW has been and will continue to be on the forefront of the battle to help protect you and your families and keep everyone safe.

I will have new information posted to the website as it arrives.

Stay safe, stay strong, and most of all, stay united as one union, as one brotherhood. Together we will get through this crisis!

Fraternally yours,

Joseph P. Calabro
